RE: Diocesan Teachers Institute February 17, 2012

We are very proud and excited to once again be asked by the Diocesan Schools Office to be the anchor choir for the Diocesan Teachers Institute, on February 17. Our choir will join with representatives from other schools to sing for the Liturgy, at which Bishop Bambara will be the Main Celebrant. We realize this is a day off from school, but the students will be finished and may be picked up at St. Mary's Church on South Washington Street in Wilkes-Barre by approximately 10:30 AM. Dress will be the school uniform (no hoodies). Students will need to be dropped off at Saint Mary's by 8:10 that morning. The students who are participating will go to the rehearsal at St. Mary's on Thursday, Feb. 16 (more information will follow). Please return to Mr. Hanlon by Monday, January 23.
