

Philosophy

The J.P. Andrejko's basketball camp is designed to provide a fun, challenging and educational basketball experience for boys, ages 8-16. Quality instruction will be provided at stations, lectures, competitions and games in an enthusiastic and safe manner. It is our hope that each camper has a positive and fun-filled week while gaining skills to help them become better basketball players.

Camp Director

J.P. Andrejko

J.P. just completed his 24th year and has become the Monarchs' all time winningest head basketball coach. His teams have won the 2005, 2007 and 2008 Freedom Conference Championships and advanced to three NCAA tournaments.

Camp Staff

Jeff Andrejko

Jeff coached for 20 seasons as a member of the King's College coaching staff after a successful nine-year tenure as an assistant varsity coach at Bishop O'Hara High School.

Rich Gray

Rich completed his 22nd season as an assistant with the King's College coaching staff after serving as an assistant at Bishop Hoban High School.

Current players on the King's College men's basketball team will also be serving as staff members.
